BA LLB (Bachelor of Arts + Bachelor of Laws)

What is BA LLB (Bachelor of Arts + Bachelor of Laws)?

Bachelor of Arts along with Bachelor of Legislative Law is the full version of B.A LLB. This curriculum is a five-year professional integrated law programme for students who wish to work as an advocate, lawyer, or legal practitioner or simply want to work in the field of law or the court.

The Bar Council of India, which oversees law degrees in India, has recognised this course as a full-time programme because the majority of the curriculum incorporates practical instruction and theory lectures.

The BA LLB combines law and legislation with interdisciplinary research of Arts stream disciplines such as sociology, history, and others. Civil law, labour law, corporate law, international law, patent law, and administrative law are only a few of the BA LLB courses. Furthermore, because it is a unique multidisciplinary degree, institutions have structured it to include a balanced mix of classroom instruction, mock court exercises, case studies, research work, and law internships, among other things.

The BA LLB programme is a popular choice among students interested in law in India and worldwide. BA LLB students will have a strong foundation in fundamental topics such as Constitutional Law, Business Law, Election Law, Code of Civil Procedure, Drafting & Pleading, Political Science, and Economics.
