

Overview

In the ever increasing tech world, the demand for cyber security is rapidly increasing. This course helps the students to get familiar with technical tools to prevent, detect, counter and recover from cybernetic attacks or incidents. They practice the prevention of cyber crimes and security of cyber assets of a company. The job opportunities in this course are ample as the demand is very high.

Educational Objectives

The mission of the department includes:

- ▶ To provide quality education to the students about cyber security.
- ▶ To train the students to deal with various security loopholes and how to fix them.
- ▶ To prepare the students for the industry.